Strategic Plan 2016–2018

Message from Niall Muldoon, Ombudsman for Children

I am the Ombudsman for Children in Ireland. It is an important role and I'm committed to working to ensure that children and young people's views are taken into account and their best interests are fully considered when decisions that impact on their lives are being made.

This Strategic Plan is important because it sets out what the OCO team and I hope to achieve over the next three years. My thanks are due to all those who helped us shape this Plan and to the many children and young people whose engagement with this Office over the years has been, and continues to be, an invaluable source of learning.

At the OCO we are keen to work with others to ensure that all children and young people in Ireland can enjoy their rights and fulfill their individual potential. We will monitor our progress as we proceed and ensure that the experiences and perspectives of children and young people inform our work.

Please do contact us if you share our ambition, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Thanks for taking an interest in our work.

OCO's Vision

We want to see an Ireland where all children and young people are actively heard and respected so that they experience safe, fulfilling and happy everyday lives.

We will use our independence and powers to the fullest extent to bring this about.

OCO's Values

These are the things that drive us as a team and make us who we are:

Compassionate — we care about children and young people and want to see their lives improved.

Independent — our independence is important so we can say the things that need to be said and hold public organisations to account.

Accessible — we are open to listening to children and young people and the adults who care and work with them.

Authoritative — when we speak out on behalf of children and young people we do so in a confident way informed by our research and backed up by the law that created the OCO.

Innovative — we are creative thinkers and are interested in promoting new ways of working with and for children and young people.

Transparent — we want everything we do to be open and easily understood so we can be held to account for the work we do.

This means that as a team we are committed to providing a high quality professional service and will, at all times treat you politely, respectfully and with dignity.

Ombudsman for Children's Office (OCO)

Niall Muldoon was appointed Ombudsman for Children by President Michael D Higgins on 17 February 2015.

The Ombudsman for Children's Office (OCO) is an independent office. The OCO was set up under a law called the Ombudsman for Children Act 2002.

Under this law, the Ombudsman for Children has two main roles:

- 1 to deal with complaints made by or for children and young people about the actions of public organisations.
- 2 to promote the rights and welfare of children and young people under 18 years old living in Ireland.

The OCO's work to promote children's rights and welfare includes:

- finding out what children and young people are concerned about and highlighting their opinions to the Government and other people who make decisions that affect them;
- supporting people, including children and young people, to find out about children's rights and how those rights can be respected, protected and made real;
- giving advice to the Government and others to help make sure laws and plans affecting children and young people respect children's rights;
- encouraging public organisations to work in ways that promote children and young people's rights and welfare; and
- carrying out or commissioning research to get a better understanding of issues that are important in children and young people's lives.

More information about the OCO's work is on our website, www.oco.ie

Children and young people can find out more about children's rights and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child on our It's Your Right website, www.itsyourright.ie

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC)

The Ombudsman for Children Act 2002 says that the OCO must promote awareness of children's rights, including the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC).

In 1989, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the Convention on the Rights of the Child. The UNCRC outlines how children, all over the world, should be treated and the rights that every child and young person under the age of 18 has. Ireland signed up to the UNCRC in 1992. In doing so, Ireland made a commitment under international law to respect, protect and fulfill children's rights as set out in the Convention.

The UNCRC is among the international, European and national agreements and laws that the OCO works with to develop understanding of:

- what children's rights mean;
- what rights children have;
- how children's rights relate to children and young people's lives in Ireland;
- how children's rights can be made real through laws, plans, actions and decisions that affect children and young people;
- the various roles that different people can play to give meaning to children's rights in children and young people's everyday lives.

In February 2016 the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child published their Concluding Observations on Ireland's record on children's rights. This is a helpful reminder that whilst Ireland has made some progress there is still much to achieve for children and young people.

Respecting the Views of Children and Young People

Since the OCO was first set up in 2004, we have heard, taken on board and highlighted the views and concerns of thousands of children and young people in Ireland. We are committed to continuing and developing this work into the future.

Given the considerable diversity of children and young people that we engage with, we understand that the issues they are concerned about are many and wide-ranging. They have shared their experiences, views, ideas and concerns with us about many things over the years, including issues relating to education; healthcare; housing and homelessness; alternative care; youth justice; child safety; equality for and among children; identity; freedom of expression and respect for children's views when decisions are being made that affect them.

Every contact we have with children and young people has the potential to broaden, deepen and diversify our understanding of the issues that matter to them. So, over the next three years, we will continue to invite children and young people to share their views and ideas as we work to deliver on the priorities we have set.

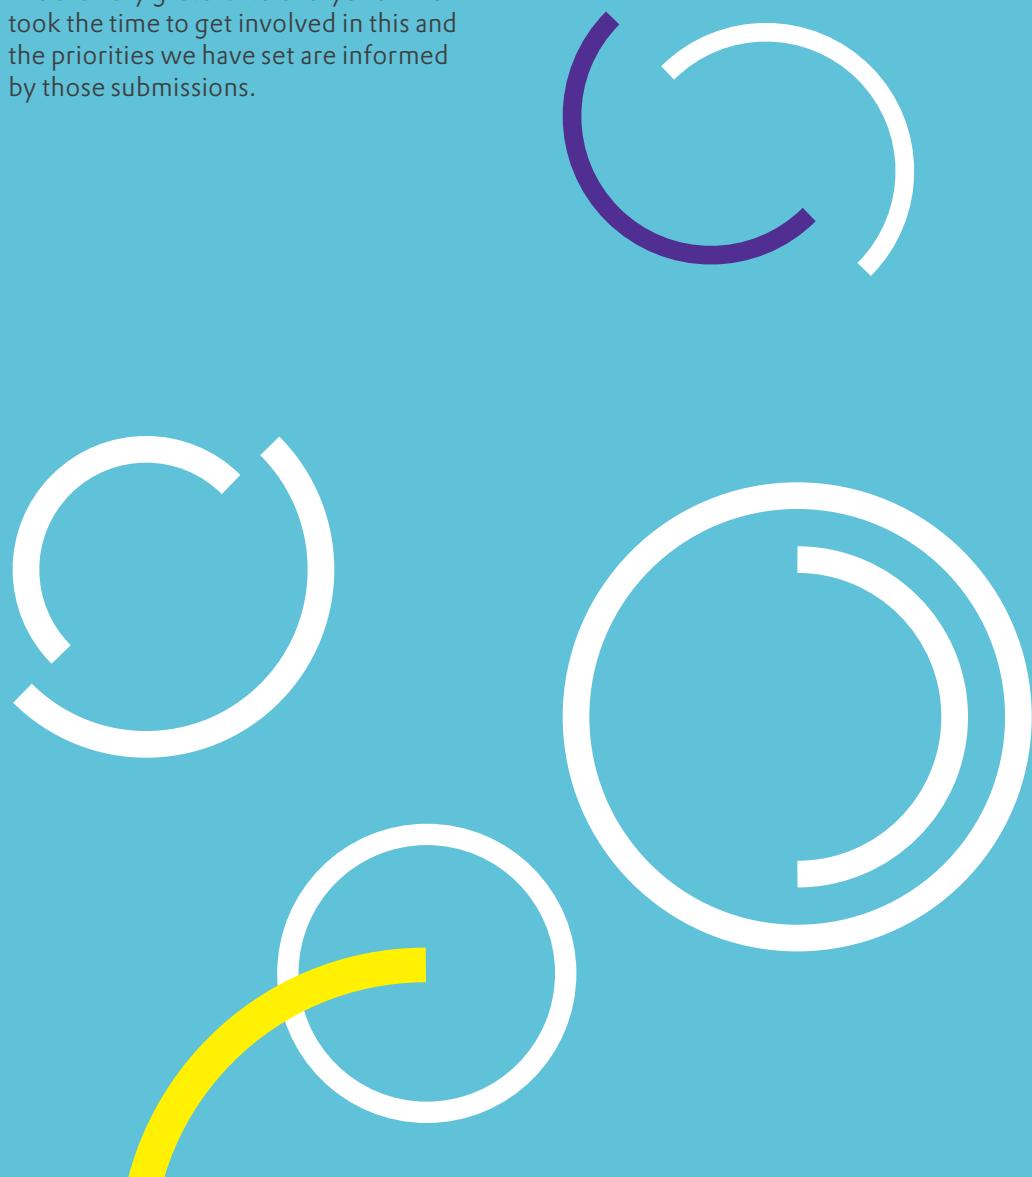

Our approach to gathering those views and ideas will be agile, and informed by a range of factors, including the many barriers that certain groups of children face to the realisation of their rights; our awareness of work being undertaken by other agencies and organisations; and developments around legislation and public policy at international, European and national level.

We will also build strongly on our role to encourage and support others to develop law, policy, procedure and practice that promote and provide effectively for children and young people's right to be heard and to have their views taken into account.

Key Issues from our Stakeholders

To help shape this Plan we spoke to many individuals and organisations about OCO's role and how we should prioritise our work. We also received some really helpful suggestions from our online Have Your Say! consultation.

We are very grateful to everyone who took the time to get involved in this and the priorities we have set are informed by those submissions.

Three-Year Strategic Plan

2016–2018

This plan outlines our 3 main objectives and the key areas of activity we will pursue to achieve them. In holding public organisations to account we will use the powers we have in law and utilise EU and UN mechanisms as appropriate.

Objective 1

We will increase awareness of children and young people's rights, the UNCRC and the role of OCO

ACTIONS

- 1.1 We will develop and implement initiatives to increase awareness among public organisations, members of the public and children and young people of the OCO's role, children's rights, and issues that children and young people are concerned about.
- 1.2 We will prepare and publish briefings on thematic issues affecting children and young people in order to promote children and young people's rights and to support learning and good practices by public organisations.
- 1.3 We will integrate child rights impact assessments, as relevant and appropriate, into our publications with a view to strengthening understanding among public organisations of the importance of respecting and promoting children's rights.

Objective 2

We will work to build capacity among public organisations whose work impacts on children and young people to develop and implement a child rights based approach to their practice

ACTIONS

- 2.1 We will promote and support good practices in complaint handling affecting children and young people, starting with education providers.
- 2.2 We will support capacity building among relevant public organisations to implement policies, procedures and practices that are consistent with child-friendly public administration.
- 2.3 We will work with others to encourage and support safe and effective participation in social and digital media by children and young people.

Objective 3

We will influence positive change for and with children and young people in Ireland

ACTIONS

- 3.1 We will explore and advise Government on the merits of introducing legislation that would allow public organisations to make an apology and, with that, support the early resolution of complaints made by or on behalf of children and young people.
- 3.2 We will pursue the progressive realisation of rights of vulnerable groups of children and young people, in particular children with disabilities, children experiencing mental health issues and homeless children.
- 3.3 We will impress upon Government the importance of ensuring that child protection services are effective and robust for all children.

How we will keep things on track

We will manage our budget and resources efficiently and effectively to support delivery of our Strategic Plan.

We will invest in our staff by ensuring that everyone has the required skills, knowledge and support to complete their work plans and therefore contribute to the delivery of our Strategic Plan.

Each year our Annual Business Plan will focus on delivery, ensuring that we keep on track to deliver on our commitments. Every member of the team at the OCO will have an individual work plan so that we can all see how our various roles contribute to improving things for children and young people in Ireland.

We will monitor our progress as a Team and our Senior Management Team will be reviewing it quarterly. Niall will then tell everyone how well we are doing in the Annual Report, which he is required to publish by the law that created the OCO.

How to get in touch with Niall and the OCO Team

This is an exciting and challenging time for children's rights in Ireland. There is so much still to achieve which is why we remain as keen as ever to hear from children and young people and the adults who care for, support or provide services to them.

Is oifig neamhspleách í Oifig an Ombudsman do Leanaí (OCO). Bunaíodh OCO faoin Acht um Ombudsman do Leanaí 2002.

Faoi dlí seo, tá dhá phríomhról ag an Ombudsman do Leanaí:

- Tacú le daoine, leanaí agus daoine óga san áireamh, chun a fháil amach faoi chearta leanaí agus conas is féidir meas a léiriú ar na cearta sin, iad a chosaint agus iad a fhíorú;

Tá tuileadh eolais faoi obair OCO le fáil ar ár suíomh gréasáin, www.oco.ie

Féadfaidh leanaí agus daoine óga tuilleadh eolais a fháil faoi chearta leanaí agus Coinbhinsiún na Náisiún Aontaithe um Chearta an Linbh ar ár suíomh gréasáin It's Your Right www.itsyourright.ie

Coinbhinsiún na Náisiún Aontaithe um Chearta an Linbh (UNCRC)

Dar leis an Acht um Ombudsman do Leanaí 2002 ní foláir don OCO feasacht a spreagadh faoi chearta leanaí, lena n-áirítear Coinbhinsiún na Náisiún Aontaithe um Chearta an Linbh (UNCRC).

Sa bhliain 1989, ghlac Comhthionól Ginearálta na Náisiún Aontaithe le Coinbhinsiún na Náisiún Aontaithe um Chearta an Linbh. Sonraítear in UNCRC conas is cóir caitheamh le leanaí, ar fud an domhain, agus cad iad na cearta a bhfuil gach leanbh agus duine óg faoi bhun aois 18 ina dteideal. Shínigh Éire UNCRC in 1992. Dá réir sin, tá Éire tar éis gealltanás a thabhairt faoin dlí idirnáisiúnta, cearta leanaí a urramú, a chosaint agus a chomhlíonadh, mar atá leagtha amach sa Choinbhinsiún.

Tá UNCRC ar cheann de na comhaontuithe agus dlíthe idirnáisiúnta, Eorpacha agus náisiúnta a mbíonn OCO ag obair leo chun tuiscint a fhobairt i leith na nithe seo a leanas:

- Cad is brí le cearta leanaí;
- Cad iad na cearta atá ag leanaí;
- Cén bhaint atá ag cearta leanaí le saol leanaí agus daoine óga in Éirinn;
- Conas is féidir cearta leanaí a fhíorú trí dhilíthe, pleannanna, gníomhartha agus cinntí a théann i bhfeidhm ar leanaí agus daoine óga;
- Na ról éagsúla atá ag daoine éagsúla a mbíonn baint acu le cearta leanaí agus daoine óga ina saol laethúil.

I mí Feabhra 2016 d'fhoilsigh Coiste na Náisiún Aontaithe um Chearta an Linbh Tuairimí Deiridh maidir le taifead na Éireann ó thaobh cearta leanaí de. Is meabhrúchán cuiditheach é seo go bhfuil a lán fós le baint amach ag Éirinn ar son leanaí agus daoine óga, cé go bhfuil dul chun cinn áirithe déanta.

Meas a léiriú ar Thuairimí Leanaí agus Daoine Óga

Ó céadbhunaíodh OCO sa bhliain 2004, táimid tar éis éisteacht go cúramach le tuairimí agus cúiseanna imní leanaí agus daoine óga in Éirinn. Táimid ar ár lándícheall leanúint leis an obair seo.

I bhfianaise ilchineálacht na leanaí agus na ndaoine óga a mbímid ag obair leo, bímid ar an eolas faoi na saincheisteanna a bhíonn ag cur as dóibh agus tuigimid go bhfuil siadsan iomadúil agus fadréimseach. Tá siad tar éis a dtaithí, a dtuairimí, a smaointe agus a gcúiseanna imní a cur in iúl dúinn faoi nithe iomadúla thar na blianta, mar shampla nithe a bhaineann le hoideachas; cúram sláinte; tithíocht agus easpa dídine; ceartas i leith an aosa óig; sábhalteach leanaí; comhionannas le haghairt leanaí agus i measc leanaí; féiniúlacht; saoirse tuairimíochta agus meas ar thuairimí leanaí tráth a bhfuil cinní á ndéanamh faoi nithe a théann i bhfeidhm orthu.

I ngach teagmháil a bhíonn againn le leanaí agus daoine óga is féidir linn cur leis an tuiscint atá againn ar na saincheisteanna is cúis leasan. Dá bhrí sin, thar an gcéad trí bliana eile, leanfaimid orainn ag iarraidh ar leanaí agus daoine óga a dtuairimí agus a smaointe a roinnt linn agus beidh muidne ar ár ndícheall na tosaíochtaí a chuireamar romhainn féin a bhaint amach.

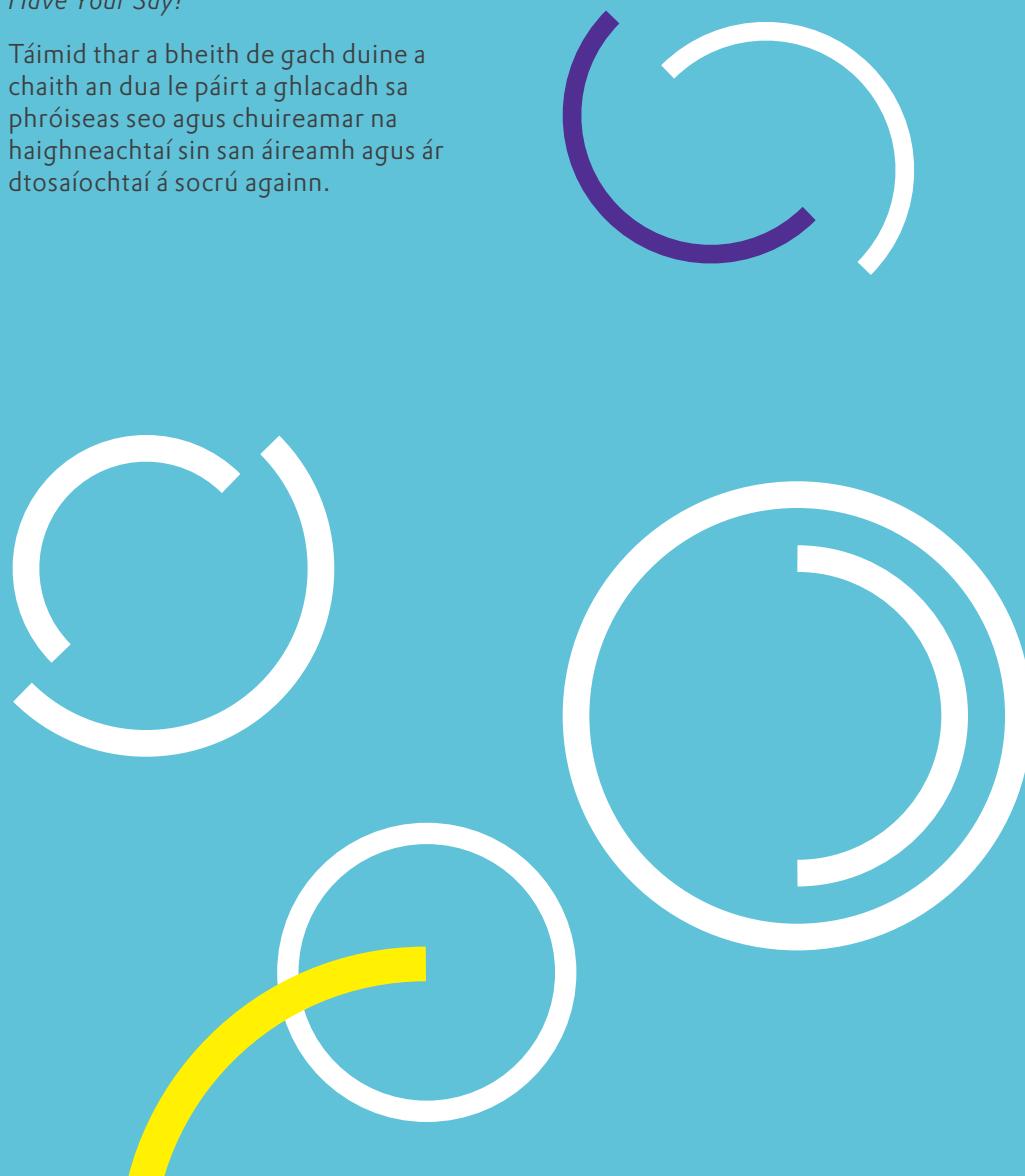

Sa chur chuige i leith bhailíú na dtuairimí sin, beimid luafar, agus cuirfimid raon gnéithe éagsúla san áireamh, mar shampla na constaíci iomadúla a mbíonn ar ghrúpaí áirithe leanaí iad a shárú chun a gcearta a fhíorú; ár bhfeasacht faoin obair atá idir lámha ag gníomhaireachtaí agus eagraíochtaí eile; agus forbairtí bunaithe ar na reachtaíochta agus ar an mbeartas poiblí ag an leibhéal idirnáisiúnta, Eorpach agus náisiúnta.

Tógfaimid freisin ar ár ról chun daoine eile a spreagadh agus cuidiú leo dlíthe, beartas agus cleachtas a fhobairt a chuireann chun cinn cearta leanaí agus daoine óga agus a sholáthraíonn go héifeachtach dóibhsean ionas gur féidir éisteacht lena dtuairimí agus na tuairimí sin a chur san áireamh.

Príomh-shaincheisteanna ónár bPáirtithe Leasmhara

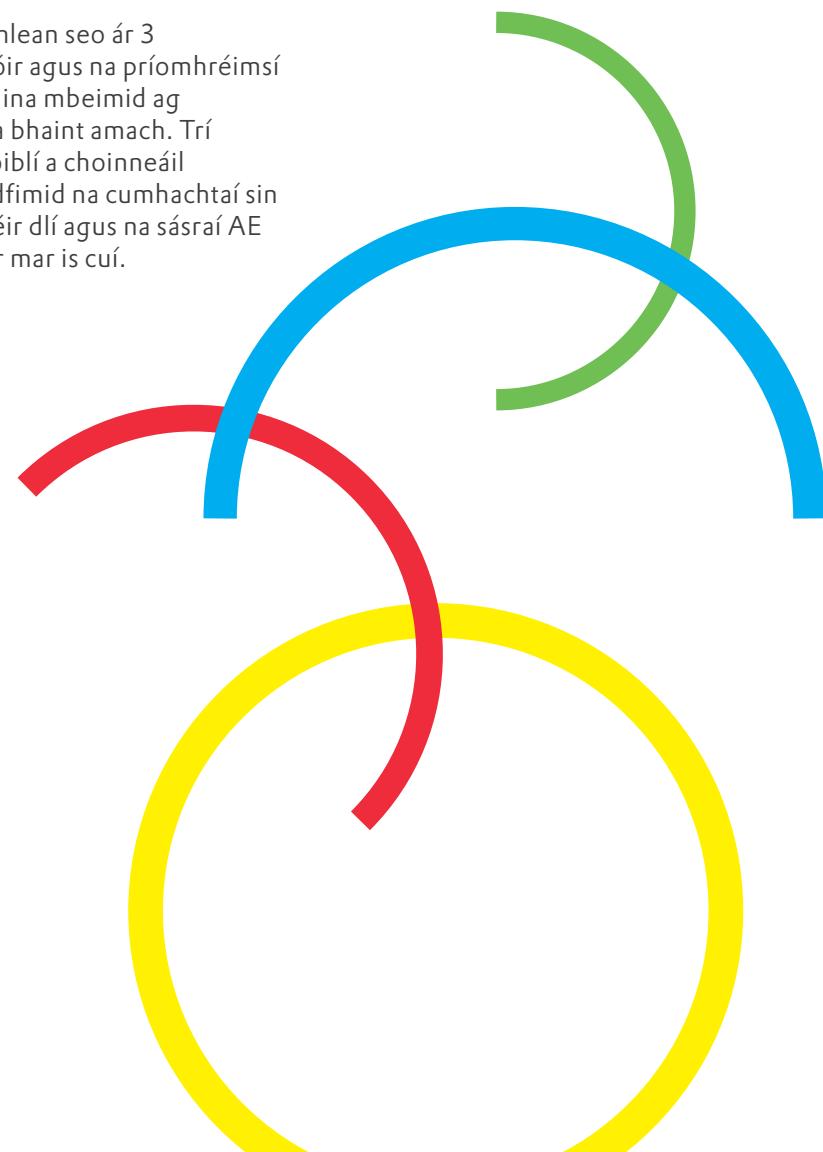

Chun cuidiú linn an Plean seo a mhúnlú labhraíomar le daoine agus eagraíochtaí iomadúla faoi ról OCO agus faoin gcaoi ar chóir dúinn tosaíochtaí a shocrú inár gcuid oibre. Chomh maith leis sin, fuaireamar roinnt moltaí thar a bheith cuiditheach ónár gcomhairliúchán ar Have Your Say!

Táimid thar a bheith de gach duine a chaith an dua le páirt a ghlacadh sa phróiseas seo agus chuireamar na haighneachtaí sin san áireamh agus á dtosaíochtaí á socrú againn.
